

Hi together,

I am Harun, a PhD student.

I am investigating how hand movement planning and execution, action and perception, and self-other distinctions are impaired in Schizophrenia spectrum Disorder patients. Using fMRI, DTI, EEG, brain stimulation, and Psychopharmacology, I am identifying and mapping the impaired brain areas and exploring potential interventions to improve them.

I am looking forward to having some collaborators.